

In the San Diego area, K-LOVE radio 100.1 serves me as a resident of this city. I listen to it daily. If K-LOVE radio were to be replaced by an LPFM broadcaster, San diego may be left without the family-oriented, uplifting and inspirational programming K_LOVE offers. The service they provide is in the public interest because they offer alternatives to questionable music and discussion heard on other radio stations.